CFPB Issues Final Rule Concerning Use of Medical Information.

The Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection (CFPB) issued a final rule to amend Regulation V, which implements the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), concerning medical information. FCRA prohibits creditors from considering medical information in credit eligibility determinations. CFPB has removed a regulatory exception that had permitted creditors to obtain and use information on medical debts notwithstanding the statutory limitation. The final rule also provides that a consumer reporting agency generally may not furnish to a creditor a consumer report containing information on medical debt that the creditor is prohibited from using. The final rule had an effective date with an incorrect year. CFPB issued a correction to fix the year from 2024 as listed in the final rule to the correct year, 2025. The final rule is effective 03/17/2025. The final rule may be viewed at:
<https://www.govinfo.gov/content/pkg/FR-2025-01-14/pdf/2024-30824.pdf>. Federal Register, Vol. 90, No. 8, 01/14/2025, 3276-3374. The correction may be viewed at:

CFPB Rescinds Earned Wage Advisory Opinion.

CFPB announced the rescission of its advisory opinion on consumer credit offered to borrowers in advance of expected receipt of compensation for work, also known as “earned wage.” The advisory opinion, issued in November 2020, described how one particular type of earned wage product does not involve the offering or extension of credit as that term is defined in the Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z. CFPB rescinded the 2020 advisory opinion for two reasons: (i) its legal analysis is significantly flawed in numerous respects; and (ii) it engendered substantial regulatory uncertainty. The rescission is applicable 01/15/2025. The notice may be viewed at:
<https://www.govinfo.gov/content/pkg/FR-2025-01-15/pdf/2025-00381.pdf>. Federal Register, Vol. 90, No. 9, 01/15/2025, 3622-3624.

The notice of withdrawal may be viewed at: <https://www.govinfo.gov/content/pkg/FR-2025-01-14/pdf/2024-31385.pdf>. Federal Register, Vol. 90, No. 8, 01/14/2025, 3044-3046.

CFPB Seeks Comment on Proposed Rule to Prohibit Certain Contract Provisions.

CFPB seeks comment regarding a proposal to prohibit certain contractual provisions in agreements for consumer financial products or services. The proposed rule would prohibit covered persons from including in contracts any provisions purporting to waive substantive consumer legal rights and protections (or their remedies) granted by State or Federal law. The proposed rule would also prohibit contract terms that limit free expression, including with threats of account closure, fines, or breach of contract claims, as well as other contract terms. The proposed rule would also codify certain longstanding prohibitions under the Federal Trade Commission's Credit Practices Rule. Comments are due 04/01/2025. The proposed rule may be viewed at: <https://www.govinfo.gov/content/pkg/FR-2025-01-14/pdf/2025-00633.pdf>. Federal Register, Vol. 90, No. 8, 01/14/2025, 3566-3596.

Comments are due 03/31/2025. The information will serve to assist CFPB and policymakers in further understanding the current state of business practices and concerns of consumers as CFPB exercises its enforcement, supervision, regulatory, and other authorities. Comments are due 04/11/2025. The notice may be viewed at: <https://www.govinfo.gov/content/pkg/FR-2025-01-15/pdf/2025-00811.pdf>. Federal Register, Vol. 90, No. 9, 01/15/2025, 3804-3808.

In connection with conducting the review, and in accordance with the Act, CFPB seeks information about a number of aspects of the consumer credit card market as described in the request for information. CFTC Issues Final Rule on Investment of Customer Funds.

The Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) issued a final rule to amend its regulations governing the types of investments that futures commission merchants (FCM) and derivatives clearing organizations (DCO) may make with funds held for the benefit of customers engaging in futures, foreign futures, and cleared swaps transactions. CFTC also revised asset-based and issuer-based concentration limits for the investment of customer funds and specified market risk capital charges that a FCM must take on new investments added to the list of permitted investments in computing the firm's adjusted net capital. The amendments also revise regulations that require each FCM to report to CFTC, and to the firm's designated self-regulatory organization, the name, location, and amount of customer funds held by each depository, including any investments of customer funds held by the depository. Lastly, CFTC eliminated the requirement that each depository holding customer funds must provide CFTC with read-only electronic access to such accounts for the FCM to treat the funds as customer segregated funds. The final rule is effective 02/21/2025. The compliance dates for the rule amendments are discussed in section VI of the final rule. The final rule may be viewed at: <https://www.govinfo.gov/content/pkg/FR-2025-01-22/pdf/2024-30927.pdf>. Federal Register, Vol. 90, No. 13, 01/22/2025, 7810-7877.

CFTC Issues Final Rule to Address Margin Adequacy and Treatment of Separate Accounts.

CFTC issued a final rule to amend its regulations, adopted under the Commodity Exchange Act (CEA), to require a futures commission merchant (FCM) to ensure a customer does not withdraw funds from its account with the FCM if the balance in the account after the withdrawal would be insufficient to meet the customer's initial margin requirements; and relatedly, to permit an FCM, subject to certain requirements, to treat the separate accounts of a single customer as accounts of separate entities for purposes of certain CFTC regulations. The final rule is effective 03/24/2025. CFTC Seeks Comment on Information Collections.

- CFTC seeks comment regarding an information collection titled, Clearing Exemption for Swaps Between Certain Affiliated Entities. Section 2(h)(1)(A) of the Commodity Exchange Act requires certain entities to submit for clearing certain swaps if they are required to be cleared by CFTC. CFTC regulation 50.52 permits certain affiliated entities to elect not to clear inter-affiliate swaps that otherwise would be required to be cleared, provided that they meet certain conditions. The rule further requires the reporting of certain information if the inter-affiliate exemption from clearing is elected. CFTC uses the information to monitor the use of the inter-affiliate exemption from CFTC's swap clearing requirement and to assess any potential market risks associated with such exemption. Comments are due 03/03/2025. The notice may be viewed at: <https://www.govinfo.gov/content/pkg/FR-2025-01-31/pdf/2025-02068.pdf>. Federal Register, Vol. 90, No. 20, 01/31/2025, 8706-8707.
- CFTC seeks comment regarding an information collection titled, Protection of Collateral of Counterparties to Uncleared Swaps, Treatment of Securities in a Portfolio Margining Account in a Commodity Broker Bankruptcy. Section 4s(l) of the Commodity Exchange Act requires swap dealers (SDs) and major swap participants (MSPs) to notify uncleared swap counterparties that they have the right to require that any initial margin the counterparty provides in connection with such transaction be segregated, and to report quarterly to counterparties who have not requested segregated accounts that the back office procedures of the SD or MSP relating to margin and collateral comply with the agreement of the counterparties. The information collection is used in connection with these requirements. Comments are due 04/04/2025. - CFTC seeks comment regarding an information collection titled, Clearing Member Risk Management. Section 3(b) of the Commodity Exchange Act (CEA) provides that one of the purposes of CEA is to ensure the financial integrity of all transactions subject to the Act and to avoid systemic risks. Section 8a(5) of the CEA authorizes CFTC to promulgate such regulations that it believes are reasonably necessary to effectuate any of the provisions or to accomplish any of the purposes of CEA as explained in the notice. The information collection is used in connection with the requirements under CEA. Comments are due 04/07/2025. The notice may be viewed at:

SEC Amends Customer Protection Rule Reserve Computations.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) issued a final rule to amend the broker-dealer customer protection rule to require certain broker-dealers to perform their reserve computations for accounts of customers and proprietary accounts of broker-dealers and make any required deposits into their reserve bank accounts daily rather than weekly. SEC also adopted amendments to the broker-dealer net capital rule and customer protection rule to permit certain broker-dealers that perform a daily reserve computation for accounts of customers to reduce aggregate debit items by 2% rather than 3% as part of the computation. Finally, SEC has adopted technical amendments to the Financial and Operational Combined Uniform Single Report (FOCUS Report) to conform it to the amendments with respect to the lowering of the debit reduction. The final rule is effective 03/14/2025. The compliance date is discussed in section III of the final rule. The final rule may be viewed at:

SEC Issues Final Rule on Electronic Submission of Materials.

SEC amended its rules to require electronic filing or submission of certain forms and other filings or submissions that are required to be filed with or submitted to SEC under the Securities Exchange Act and the rules and regulations under the Exchange Act. The amendments require the electronic filing or submission on SEC's Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis, and Retrieval (EDGAR) system, using structured data where appropriate, for certain forms filed or submitted by self-regulatory organizations (SROs). The amendments require the information currently contained in Form 19b-4(e) to be publicly posted on the SRO's website and remove the manual signature requirements for SRO proposed rule change filings. SEC is also requiring that a clearing agency post supplemental material to its website. In addition, SEC has amended rules under the Exchange Act and the Securities Act to require the electronic filing or submission on EDGAR, using structured data where appropriate, of certain forms, reports, and notices provided by broker-dealers, security-based swap dealers, and major security-based swap participants. The amendments also require withdrawal in certain circumstances of notices filed in connection with an exception to counting certain dealing transactions toward determining whether a person is a security-based swap dealer. Finally, SEC is allowing electronic signatures in certain broker-dealer filings and amending the Financial and Operational Combined Uniform Single Report (FOCUS Report) to harmonize with other rules, make technical corrections, and provide clarifications. The final rule is effective 03/24/2025. The compliance dates for the rule amendments are discussed in section VIII of the final rule. The final rule may be viewed at:
